SATURDAY'S TRACK MEET

HEAP MUCH LIVELY.

Freshmen-Preps and the Sophomores Win in Easy Style and Rejoice Over It.

In the dual track meet Saturday afternoon, the Freshmen-Preps won from the Lexington High School by the score of 53 to 35, and the Sophomores won from the Freshmen by 39 to 33.

The meet was the best seen on Stoll Field this season, and some excellent work was done. Among the best men on the field were Howard, May, Coffee, Needy, Shanklin and Johnson. All of these men did excellent work, and Freshman May bids fair to become an all-star track man. Howard put a shadow on Shanklin's record by beating him in the 2:20, but the old dog came back with the broad jump. Johnson handled the heavy-weights like the giant he is, and had everything in the High School meet out-classed a mile.

The results of the meet were as follows:

Hammer Throw—Johnson, University Freshman, first; Blevins, University Prep., second; Chambers, University Prep., third.

Shot Put—Johnson, University Freshman, first; Downing, High School, second; Chambers, University Prep., third.

Broad Jump—Guyn, High S., first, 17.5, and May, University Freshman, second, 17.2.

100-Yard Dash—Grace, University Prep., first; Guyn, High S., second; Brooks, High School, 3d.

Half Mile Run—Coffee, University Prep., first; Meyers, University Prep., second; O'Connell, University Prep., third.

220-Yard Dash—Guyn, High School, first; Brooks, High School, second.

Pole Vault—Smith, High S., first; May, University Freshman, second.

High Jump—May, University

Balled up, twisted, disjointed and broken-backed--come and see the Gymm Tournament.

Freshman, and Troutman, University Prep., tied for first place. 220 Yard Relay Race—High School, first with team composed of Guyn, Brooks, Taylor and Wilkerson.

Quarter Mile Run—Jackson, University Prep., first.

Officials—Coach E. R. Sweetland, of the University, and Coach Van Meter, of the High School.

Junior-Soph Meet.

The results of the Junior-Sophomore meet were as follows:

Broad Jump—Shanklin, Junior, first, 18.7 feet; Giltner, Junior, second, 18 feet; Rochester, Sophomore, third, 17.2 feet.

Mile Run—Collins, Sophomore, first; Raish, Junior, second.

220-Yard Dash—Howard, Sophomore, first; Shanklin, Junior, second.

100 Yard Dash—Threlkeld, Sophomore, first; Gnadinger, Sophomore, second.

Half Mile Run—Collings, Sophomore, first; Collins, Junior, second; Allen, Junior, third.

Disc Throw—Webb, Junior, first, 95.35 feet; Regan, Sophomore, second, 85.33; Babb, Junior, third, 78.4.

Relay Race—Sophomores won with team composed of Threlkeld, Howard, Gnadinger and Watkins.

High Jump—Golden, Sophomore, first; Bateman, Junior, second.

Shot Put—Webb, Junior, first; Giltner, Junior, second.

Hammer Throw—Webb, Junior, first; Babb, Junior, second; Giltner, Junior, third.

The intercollegiate track meet between the colleges and universities of Central Kentucky will be held in the near future at Stoll Field.

HUBBARD WINS GREAT CONTEST

BURRESS A CLOSE SECOND.

The Annual Oratorical Contest of the Patterson Literary Society was held Friday evening in the Chapel. With the decision of the judges in favor of Mr. Hubbard and the last dying echoes of "My Old Kentucky Home," played by Grella's Band, one of the best contests ever known at the University passed into the annals of history.

The judges were Wallace Muir, Geo. T. Gess and Judge J. H. Mulligan, who returned Mr. Hubbard the winner by a two to one decision.

T. H. Burress, of Madison, Ga., was the first speaker of the evening. His subject was "The Mission of Socialism," and the manner in which he rendered it firmly convinced the audience that the South has not fallen from that high estate of oratory, for which it has been so famous in the past. His speech, though of considerable length, held the complete attention of every one present.

The second and last speaker was Mr. Alpha Hubbard. His subject was "The Race Problem" and the thought and conservation displayed therein; the eloquent language in which it was couched, and the earnestness with which it was delivered, brought forth the opinion that none its superior had ever been heard in that chapel.

It was a great contest, and because each realizes that in honorable combat, he met a foeman worthy of his steel, in the victor there is no exaltation, and in the vanquished no sting of defeat.

The Intercollegiate Contest will be held shortly to select the representative for the University in the Intercollegiate, which will take place April 22, at K. S. U.

ANNUAL GYM TOURNAMENT SATURDAY EVENING.

The Best Ever Given by the University.—Full of Sensational Feats.

The Eighth Annual Gymnastic Tournament, to be given by the Gymnasium Team of 1910, will take place in the State University Gymnasium, Saturday night, beginning at 8 o'clock prompt.

The team this year is one of the best that ever represented the University, and the work of the men will be the best seen here for some time.

A handsome gold and silver medal will be awarded the best all-round gymnast, and as all the men are exceptionally good this year, a great race is expected.

The following men will take part in the exhibition: T. B. Short, J. S. Crosthwaite, W. S. Theising, R. O. Porter, R. Bateman, C. G. Taylor, B. S. Sallee, W. T. Johnston and T. B. Hedges.

There will also be an exhibition of pyramid building by two teams of 18 men. These men have been under the direction of Prof. W. W. H. Mustaine for the last month, and as this is a new feature of the Tournament, it is expected to be a great drawing card.

Another feature of the Tournament will be a Boxing Contest, in which four of the best boxers in the University will take part. For the winner of this contest a handsome medal will be given by Prof. W. H. H. Mustaine.

A large class of well trained gymnasts will give a Hygiene Wand Drill. An admission of 25 cents will be charged. Tickets for sale by members of team and at door.

A Michigan professor says that the East is thirty-six years behind the West in oratory.

THE IDEA

Published every Thursday by THE IDEA SYNDICATE of the State University of Kentucky for the benefit of the students, the faculty and the alumnae of that institution.

Not full of tiresome technicalities, but of real interesting University news. The object of the syndicate is to teach journalism to the members; to have the members fill the paper with news written in correct English, and to put the paper before those interested in College news.

WHY?

(The following editorial reflecting upon our worthy publication, appeared in the Hanover Triangle. We reprint it, and the reader can comment or not, as is the notion:

"The Idea, Kentucky State University's publication, publishes weekly on its front cover, inner side, the season's basketball schedule and the results of games played to date. But in that schedule no mention has ever been made of the worst defeat of the season, administered by Hanover, February eight. Nor was any mention ever made in the columns of that publication to enlighten Kentucky students that Hanover College had a game with their team. Perhaps the Kentucky quintette unintentionally neglected to advise The Idea of this game. The final count was 48 to 5, and only fifteen-minute halves were played."

THE POLICY MAN.

Commonly known in College circles as the "politician." He becomes a prominent factor in every phase of College life,—how, we never know. He fills his own sphere inadequately, but manages to fill up the place of some more efficient man—too game to grumble.

He cannot be fully characterized. Sometimes he looks distinguished; sometimes not. Often he is energetic; generally he is not. Frequently an athlete; rarely not. Always polite, sometimes accommodating; apparently nervous, self-assertive, shrewd, witty, generally a student, and too often a liar. He is usually found out—"discovered"—by another politician. They rarely agree; sometimes they do effectively.

The "politician" is made, not born. He makes himself before he knows it; sometimes in high school; oftener after he gets to College. He grows from natural conceit into cultivated selfishness, and finally shrewd thieving and trickery, sugar-coated with a smile. His fraternity tolerates him; his companions suspect him; and his friends doubt. Once exposed, he is the faculty's "mark," the ladies' suspect, and the fellows' disgust. If he is wise enough he may fool them all. Sometimes he's a joke.—(Ex.

The track meet was very much a success. Let the good work go on.

The Senior Engineers are back from their sky-lark. Did they gain much worldly experience while away with Messrs. Anderson and Wilson?

There is a student in the University who has earned the much honored title of "King of the Jacksonites." For information as to who he is, ask—Mackrel.

God bless T. B. H. and B. H.

As ye sow, so shall you reap. says H. K. How original!

About the best piece of wit that we have heard for some time was rendered by a student of the College of Law. He was philosophizing: "The trouble with a great many Freshmen students is that they can't pass. If they could pass, they would not need to go to school,—they would soon make their fortunes in other ways." FINE!

NOTICE!

Our attention has been called to the fact that several persons have been obtaining copies of the Idea under false pretenses. This has been done a number of times, and we have known it.

We will not attempt to stop it, but hereafter we will publish a list of the persons who have thus obtained copies during the previous week, and also the names of the non-subscribers who have asked the circulating manager for the papers of subscribers.

AT THE HIPPI.

Coming as the immediate successor of one of the best bills that has ever held forth at the Hippodrome, this week's show may seem rather light in comparison but there is plenty in it to make it worth while, as was amply evidenced by Monday's audiences, which were big in spite of two or three other attractions.

The McAleavy's two trick and barrel jumpers just imported from England, open the show with as pretty a demonstration of high class athletic work as one ever sees. They work fast, and among their most daring and thrilling stunts are several which they have originated. Their feature is the clearing of a piano in a single jump, with a musician seated at the key-board. Their work on a large stage would be considered exceptional, and on the Hipp stage which is rather crowded this week, their work is nothing short of wonderful.

Morris Abrams, who is billed as the original Perimutter, has a very good line of talk and two or three fairly good parodies.

JUDGE COLSON THE MAN OF THE HOUR.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Hon. M. G. Colson, a member of the Senior Class of the College of Law, and a member of the recent Legislature, gave a snuffbox smoker to about a dozen of his class-mates.

The affair was enjoyed very much, and speeches were made by Messrs. Strong, Colson, Ellis, Moore and Thompson.

Mr. Colson left the University Wednesday for a short visit to his brother in Hinchison, Kansas.

In a fencing tourney held at West Point the Army defeated Columbia by six bouts to three.

Smith Hall, the magnificent new museum of the University of Alabama, is now receiving the finishing touches which bring out the architectural features of one of the most beautiful buildings in the South.

The building, which has been in course of construction for over a year, has been used already this year by the biological department, which occupies one of the completed wings. Dr. Eugene A. Smith is now moving the equipment of the state geological survey into the other wing and the classes in geology will soon use the new building. But while the exterior and a good part of the interior has been finished for some time, the museum proper, owing to the high grade workmanship necessary, has been delayed.

The building, designed by Architect Frank Lockwood, represents the suggestions of the man whose name it bears, Dr. Eugene A. Smith state geologist and professor of geology in the University. The Chicago Academy of Science offered some practical suggestions and in many respects the new structure will be a model, both from scientific and architectural considerations.

The classic beauty of eight immense stone columns and profuse stone courses in the gray pressed brick, is but an earnest of the magnificent interior where twenty large white Corinthian columns and an artistic frieze are the impressive features of the spacious exhibit hall.

Smith Hall represents an expenditure of $100,000 but experts are agreed that it is a rare bargain even at that figure.

—o—
DO YOU KNOW THEM?

On Pat Hall steps, one moon-lit night,
A youth and maiden stood;
He told his tale of ardent love,—
Full vallantly he wooed.

He said he'd never loved but her,
This civil engineer,
Altho' he'd tried as best he could,
When in the Prep last year.

And now his heart was all her own,
And she believed each word;
While listening to his ardent tone,
Her tender heart was stirred.

For were they not both Freshmen—
This youth and maiden? 'Tho'
He was just an engineer
Her dean was Dr. Snow.

No power, he said, was strong enough,
To tear him from her side;
But soon this vow was put to test,
For a window opened wide,

And from out the opened casement,
There peered the Matron's head.
The Youth had vanished, ere the words,

"Miss —, come to bed!"

ENCOURAGING ATHLETICS

A prominent athlete recently asked us the question: "What does an athlete get out of sports, anyway?" He stated that certain members of the faculty were continually "laying" for him, always awaiting an opportunity to remind him of the fact that if it were not for athletics he might get along better. Then his friends were ready on all occasions to make sport of his athletic failures, when they never thought it worth while to say a few words of praise.

There is a whole lot of truth in this information. While we believe athletics are worth while to those participating in the games, it is true that athletics do not have all the encouragement due them. After a few years at the game a man becomes immune to the applause of the grandstand, and about the only thing he gets out of his work is the discipline and physical training of the exercise. And there is no doubt that this training comes high when it comes to good, hard work.

The highest motive that should impel a man to give a large amount of his time and energy to a certain sport, is the desire to see his school win. All students have this desire, but it can easily be killed by just such conditions as our questioner complains of being up against.

A man is not always going to class with his lesson prepared. It isn't human nature. Yet the athlete or the man interested in some student activity must bear the sarcastic remarks of some instructor, while the student that never did anything on the outside goes scot free. It pays to use a little humanity even in school work, and we have no doubt that many of our athletes would feel more like working if a few kind words were dropped in their direction once in awhile by non-athletic faculty members and thoughtless students.—(Ex.)

WANTED.

A wife of the white species, six and one-half feet in altitude; must tip the scales at one hundred and eighty pounds. No children. Blonde desired. Peroxides need not apply. Must not dance, but can drink Schlitz. Must be able to cook beans and hoe in the garden. Must know something about macaroni culture, also appreciate music.

Applicant must have come into existence between the years of 1880 and 1895. Must furnish proof that she does not snore.

"I heard her behind the door pleading for just one. They must be engaged." "Naw, they're married. It was a dollar she was pleading for."

TRUTHFUL LUNATIC.

As a doctor was showing some friends over a lunatic asylum he drew their attention to a stately old woman wearing a paper crown. He explained that she imagined that she was the queen of England, and, thinking to amuse his visitors, he advanced toward her with a courtly bow, and said,

"Good morning, your majesty." Looking at him she scornfully uttered:

"You're a fool, sir!" The doctor was greatly astonished but totally collapsed when one young woman innocently remarked: "Why, doctor, she was sane enough then."

Mother: "There were two apples in the cupboard, Tommy, and now there is only one. How's that

Tommy (who sees no way of escape): "Well, ma, it was so dark in there I didn't see the other."

O! Beefsteak, there upon my plate For thee I sigh, on thee I saw. Why is it thy fibers will not part, That I may fill my hungry jaw? This world a paradise would be If friends would hold as firm as thee.

The above must mean steak in general and Sbis's steak in particular.

Swarthmore College basketball team closed its season in a game with Lehigh, the latter winning the contest, 29 to 24. This was the first defeat for Swarthmore on their home floor in two years.

The basketball championship now lies between Columbia University and the New York University five, Columbia winning an exciting game from the University of Pennsylvania by the score of 19 to 13.

Minnesota has accepted Nebraska's invitation to the Omaha championship games April 1, and will enter an entire track team. The invitation includes an offer to pay the expense of sending a four-man relay team.

She was the lady of his choice, and he took no pains to conceal it.
"I'll bet you don't know what day tomorrow is," she announced suddenly.

"Why, Tuesday, of course," he answered in a puzzled tone.

"Oh, I don't mean that kind of a day. I knew you didn't know."

"Well, I guess I'll have to tell you." She pretended she was hurt. "It will be my birthday."

"Congratulations, Alice. Congratulations," he exclaimed enthusiastically. "And how old may—"

"That's for you to find out,"
she answered, laughing.

"Well, I bet I know."

"You do?"

"Yes, and I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll send you a rose for every year of your life. How will that do?"

At the florist's he found the assistant unoccupied.

"Send Miss Casey eighteen of your best roses tomorrow morning. You know the address. Eighteen. Your best. Understand?"
The boy understood.

Half an hour later the proprietor was looking over the order book.

"What did Mr. Graham order today?"

"Eighteen roses, sir," answered Willie.

"Eighteen? He's a pretty good customer. Throw in a dozen more."

That did settle it.

There was an old woman named Fitch,
Who heard a loud snoring; at which
She took off her hat
And found that a rat
Had fallen asleep at the switch.

The Professor—"I don't seem to remember your face. Have you ever been in one of my classes before?"

The Professor—"Really, sir, I don't remember."

Where is Bill these days?"
"Fired."
"Oh, yes, I believe I did hear the report."

He (after embarrassing silence)—
"Don't you think the floor is unusually flat to-night?"

What is this Woman's Sphere that the suffragates are after?"
"The earth."

"How do you feel about being on the water-wagon?"
"Well, I feel better off."

"I hear Jones, the sea captain, is in hard luck. He married a girl, and she ran away from him."

"Yes, he took her for a mate but she was a skipper."

"When a woman marries and then divorces her husband inside of a week, what would you call it?"

"Taking his name in vain."

KEEP ON.

If the day looks kinder gloomy,
An' yer chances kinder slim;
If the situation's puzzlin',
An' the prospects awful grim;
An' perplexities keep a presen'
Till all hope is nearly gone
Jest bristle up an' grit yer teeth,
An' keep on keepin' on.

A student of Missouri University who scattered hydrogen sulphide in a rooming house was captured by the other roomers and given a quick haircut. It is said that the job was not an artistic one.

One hundred and fifty men are trying out for girls' parts in the Haresfoot Dramatic Club at the University of Wisconsin.

"Ah, sir, we do enjoy sermons," remarked an old lady to a new curate. "They are so instructive. We never knew what sin was until you came to the parish."

Concerning high-school football teams
It often comes to pass
The man that's fullback in the field
Is wayback in his class.

Mrs. Hicks (relating burglar scare)
—"Yes, I heard a noise and got up, and there under the bed I saw a man's legs."

Mrs. Wicks—"Mercy! The burglar's?"

Mrs. Hicks—"No, my husband's—he had heard the noise, too."

Here is some politics: The election for the editor and business manager of the Daily Illini will be held April 5. There are two candidates for each position and the contest is becoming decidedly warm. It has been necessary to devote the editorial columns of the Illini to discourage the use of automobiles to carry voters to the polls and discountenance the buying of co-ed votes.

"Man," declared the old-fashioned preacher, "is a worm."

"And," said a man who had been married three times and who was occupying a small space in a rear pew, "woman is the early bird."

"What I Told My Wife" is the title of a new book. It is almost needless to say that it is fiction.

"What's the matter, Mr. Gilday. You appear annoyed." "I am. Do you see that fussy little man by the super-room door?" "Yes." "He's a blatant old humbug." "Yes, that's papa."

"How are you, old man—feeling well?" "Do you really care a rap?"

"Not a rap. I merely asked out of politeness which I see was quite thrown away."

THE PAINFUL TRUTH.

The certain diplomat was talking the other day about the painfulness of the truth. He said it reminded him of a morning call that he once made on a young lady in his youth.

In answer to his ring a tiny girl opened the door, and the man said to her, as he walked into the hall:

"Where is your sister?"

"Upstairs in her nightie," chirped the tot, "a-lookin' over the balustrade."

Smile a little Help a little Push a little

The world needs you.

Work a little
Wait a little Hope a little

And don't get blue.
